Free Resources

By now, you should all have received your next instalment of the new Programme resource cards. To help you keep these together in one place, we still have a large number of storage boxes yet to be collected along with the relevant divider cards for the new Programme resources for Anchor Boys. Please call into B.B. House and collect these at your convenience.

We have just taken delivery of the new Badges to accompany the new Programme that you will want to present at upcoming Displays and Parents' Nights to recognise each Member's achievement.
